Austin, TX – Two 18-wheeled delivery trucks, volunteered by Tito's Handmade Vodka, will take shipment of supplies donated to the Austin Disaster Relief Network (ADRN) on Saturday, September 2, 2017. The trucks are scheduled to leave the ADRN headquarters, 1122 East 51st street starting at 10:30 am.

"ADRN has been our partner through the Wimberley Floods, to the Bastrop Fires to the Denham Springs floods in Louisiana," said Amy Lukken, Director of Philanthropy of Tito's Handmade Vodka. "Daniel Geraci's team is one of the most well organized disaster relief outfits we have worked with and we are proud to support his team's efforts in caring for our communities," she said.

"The needs of the people adversely affected by the flooding are incredible, but ADRN is committed to getting supplies to the affected area as quickly as possible," Geraci said. "We are delighted that Tito's is making these trucks available to get these highly-needed supplies to the coastal area," Geraci said.
